

Director of Children's, Youth, and Intergenerational Formation, St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, St. Paul, Minnesota

St. Matthew's Episcopal Church is seeking a creative, entrepreneurial, collaborative, and can-do follower of the Way of Jesus* who loves God, children and young adults, to oversee our Sunday school program and youth groups. This position involves directing the apprenticeship of children and youth through high school into Jesus' way, using scripture, spiritual practices, art, drama, Legos, computer, and audio-visual tools. It also involves engaging and equipping the parents of children and youth. The position is ¾ time with the potential to be full time. Pay is commensurate with experience.

Gifts and skills we are looking for include the ability to articulate and implement a vision for Christian discipleship, people skills, a collaborative leadership style, administrative gifts, computer skills, creativity, and flexibility. A theological education, course work in children's and youth ministry, and/or previous experience with Godly Play and youth ministry is a plus.

For more information about the specifics of this job please email the Rev. Blair Pogue at rector@stmatthewsmn.org. Interested candidates are encouraged to send a one page cover letter and resume to the Rev. Pogue at this same email address by June 1.

* To learn more about St. Matthew's Way of Jesus go to the "Way of Jesus" tab on St. Matthew's website, www.stmatthewsmn.org