

Missional Innovative Partnership 2016-2017 Application

Summary

In 350 words or less, tell us about your proposed Missional Innovative Partnership (MIP). You may want to write the summary after answering the other questions in this application.

- Who are the primary partners and what are the primary activities?
- What is new and unique about this partnership and what need does it address in your community?
- How will you know your partnership is successful?

Mission

In 500 words or less, please share with us how this MIP addresses 'Mission.'

- How did the faith community discern (learn/discover) the call to engage this issue/community?
- How has the faith community prepared itself to participate in this engagement?
- How does this proposed project support the Mission Opportunity 2017 topic: Hearing our Stories, Healing Relationships: Engaging God's Mission of Racial Reconciliation?

Innovation

In 500 words or less, please share with us how this MIP addresses 'Innovation.'

- What is new or unique about this partnership or activity?
- How does this new approach address the need or purpose of the activities?
- Tell us about any models/pilots/examples the project is based upon.

Partnership

In 500 words or less, please share with us how this MIP addresses 'Partnership.'

- How did this partnership develop?
- What is the role of the faith community in this partnership?
- Tell us how your faith community will support and participate in this partnership.

Evaluation

In 350 words or less, describe how you will know this partnership is successful.

- What would a successful project look like?
- How will the partners know what is working and what is not?

Sustainability

MIP grants seed new partnerships and offer a chance to try something. Projects may be asked to submit for continued work in the following year on a case-by-case basis.

- In 350 words or less, describe how this partnership/project will be sustainable after the grant expires.
- Please attach a budget. List the known expenses and give a short description of each.