I. THEOLOGICAL AND ETHICAL FOUNDATIONS

In our Baptismal Covenant, we promise to respect the dignity of every human being. These Safe Church Policies establish and maintain standards intended to ensure that our faith communities are safe places where all of God’s people are loved and encouraged to grow into the people God calls us to be. They outline ways to uphold our responsibility for the safety of children and adults in our care.

These updated policies are an effort to build upon our prior policies, with added care and proactivity for the creation of not only safe but also transformational communities. We want to create positive, healthy experiences where all people are welcomed into the unconditional, sacrificial love of God. Specifically, these new policies for protecting vulnerable adults have been expanded in scope significantly.

Each faith community should adopt its own set of Safe Church Policies and practices in accordance with canonical requirements. The ECMN Safe Church Policies can act as a starting point for your faith community.

II. APPLICATION AND SCREENING

ECMN, faith communities, and other organizations are required to screen each individual seeking to engage in a ministry position with vulnerable adults according to the standards listed below prior to or contemporaneously with the start of a ministry position. (To be considered a ministry position, the role must occur more than 3 times in one calendar year.) The individual must be known and active in ECMN, the faith community, or organization for at least six months before engaging in ministry with vulnerable adults.

A. Public Records Checks
   • Criminal public records checks shall include all available criminal records and sex offender registries.
   • A Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) records check is needed if transporting vulnerable adults as part of, or an extension of, ministry of the church or for a church-sponsored event.
   • A credit check is required for those with check-signing authority.
   • Public records checks must be updated at least every five years. It is recommended that they be updated every three years with Safe Church Training renewal.

B. Additional Screening Requirements
Written application, interview, and reference verification are required before serving in a ministry position. These components are generally conducted in the following order:
   • Submission of a completed written application to serve in a specified role with a clearly defined, written “job description.” The application includes verifiable personal information.
   • Personal Interview
   • Reference verification to confirm personal information and check references listed in the application (references should be people who know, but are not related to, the applicant).
   • A signature by each applicant verifying receipt of a copy of the Safe Church Policies.
III. TRAINING AND COMPLIANCE

In order to be in compliance with ECMN Safe Church Policies, each faith community must:

- Have formally adopted these Safe Church Policies at a Vestry, Bishop’s Committee or Board of Directors meeting, and recorded the text of the policies in the minutes. Review and reaffirm your adoption of these policies annually and record it in the meeting minutes.
- Have the appropriate individuals in their organization trained in-person by a certified ECMN Safe Church Trainer or complete the online ECMN Safe Church training (see Grid in Appendix C). If an individual completes their initial training online, they are required to have a follow-up conversation with a trainer or with their priest.
- Have each person who has been trained entered into the national Safe Church database to verify their training (this will be done by a Safe Church Trainer).
- Have each person working with children, youth, or vulnerable adults complete and file a background check.
- Have Safe church policies renewed annually.
- Ensure that those trained renew their training every 3 years. No follow-up conversation is required for renewals completed online.

A. 3 Tiers of Training

1. Tier One - Universal Training

Description: A basic one-hour training that will foster a culture of safety and inclusion for all people, which includes a broad overview of issues of vulnerability, power, and healthy boundaries. This training is designed to equip all people to live out their Baptismal Covenant.

Who needs this training: All members of the faith community.

This training involves an annual community-wide conversation using the ECMN Universal Training:

- Each faith community is required to have an annual community conversation about our ECMN Safe Church Policies. This conversation may include various forms of outreach, including an adult forum, a special meeting, e-news blast, and other measures in order to reach as many members as possible. The ECMN Universal Training can be used as a guide to facilitate these community conversations and online communications.
- The ECMN Universal Training will consist of a standard set of basic slides, available digitally, and designed by our ECMN community of trainers and lay professionals. It is intended to enhance and deepen our approach to our Safe Church Policies. This ECMN Universal Training will be reviewed and adapted annually within the oversight of the School for Formation. It will add important and evolving information, tools, and resources around the updated policies for:
  - Working with gender non-binary children and youth
  - The needs of LGBTQ+ children and youth
  - The needs of differently-abled children and youth (ADHD, Autism, etc.)
  - Engaging current research around protecting children and youth (such as how to be a community that surrounds kids with healthy adult relationships)
  - Addressing facility safety concerns (such as emergency action plans, shelter in place, and security audits)

IV. FACILITATING, MONITORING AND SUPERVISING PROGRAMS

All people who minister to or have pastoral relationships with vulnerable adults must have ongoing supervision. Ongoing supervision should consist of regular check-ins by the Supervisor, who may be a clergy person or a team leader. Such supervision shall review the scope, accountability, and responsibility of the ministry with the ministering individual. Each person engaged in such ministry should know who supervises their ministry and how to contact the Supervisor at all times.

ECMN, faith communities, and organizations shall ensure that all people who minister to vulnerable adults receive prior training as to the scope, accountability, and responsibility of the ministry.
ECMN, faith communities, and organizations shall maintain an up-to-date list of persons, including contact information, approved to minister to vulnerable adults and/or engage in pastoral relationships with others. This list shall be kept in the organization’s office or other place where records are kept.

It is best practice for those ministering to vulnerable adults to document their visits, including time, place, and any observations or concerns. Such documentation is reviewed by the Supervisor. Confidentiality among clergy and lay ministers is required and all documentation should be kept confidential. This documentation promotes continuity of care and transparency in ministry.

All new activities that include pastoral relationships and/or ministry to vulnerable adults shall have a Responsible Person to monitor and supervise all events to ensure appropriate behavior and healthy boundaries.

A. Presence of Unrelated Adults Suggested
While not required, it is best practice for those ministering to vulnerable adults, or in the homes of others, to do so with another trained adult minister present. If circumstances result in a minister being alone with a vulnerable adult, that minister shall report this to the Supervisor, clergy, senior warden, or Responsible Person as soon as possible.

B. Creating Safe Space for Pastoral Relationships and/or Ministry with Vulnerable Adults
To create a safe space, it is necessary to anticipate and avoid circumstances that could result in vulnerable adults being exposed to undue influence or exploitation. On-site and off-site settings for ministry with vulnerable adults and pastoral conversations should take place in locations where casual monitoring by others is convenient, and in locations that convey safety and comfort.

C. Inclusiveness
No one shall be denied rights, status, or access to an equal place in the life, worship, and governance of any program or activity because of race, color, ethnic origin, national origin, marital status, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, differing abilities, socio-economic class, or age. To the extent possible, all spaces and settings for programs, activities, and ministry shall be inclusive and accessible.

ECMN, faith communities, and organizations seek to support all vulnerable adults by providing reasonable alternative arrangements to address safety and comfort.

Transgender, genderqueer, or gender non-binary adults who express the need or desire for increased privacy should be provided with reasonable alternative arrangements. Reasonable alternative arrangements may include the use of a private area, on a separate changing schedule, or use of a single-stall restroom. Any alternative arrangement should be provided in a way that protects the adult’s ability to keep their transgender status confidential, if they so desire.

Transgender, genderqueer, or gender non-binary adults should not be required to use a locker room or restroom that conflicts with their gender identity. Safe bathroom/shower facilities will be provided by gender (or specific times will be assigned for the use of a single facility).

D. Violence
• No one is to strike, hit, or otherwise physically threaten or harm anyone at any time.
• No one is to control or attempt to control another by bullying, intimidation, threats, verbal/emotional abuse, or isolation from others. Bullying of any kind by anyone is prohibited.
• Report suspected violations immediately. (See Suspected Violations of this Policy in Section V:B).

E. Behavioral Standards for Ministry with Vulnerable Adults
All who work with vulnerable adults are expected to model patterns of healthy relationships. To this end, lay and ordained ministers working with vulnerable adults shall:
• Take care not to unduly influence a person to whom they minister
• Accept only token gifts from those to whom they minister. Ministers given gifts shall report those gifts in writing to their Supervisor, clergy, senior warden, or Responsible Person.
• Decline to accept loans of any kind from those to whom they minister
• Decline to agree to be named as a beneficiary or to act as an administrator or executor in a will of anyone to whom they minister
• Inform Supervisor, clergy, senior warden, or Responsible Person of anything that causes concern for the safety or wellbeing of those to whom they minister.

DOs
All who minister to vulnerable adults are encouraged to:
• Have ongoing spiritual practices, which might include: daily prayer, regular participation in corporate worship, and Bible study
• Spend time with and listen to vulnerable adults, and advocate for their ministry within the Body of Christ
• Maintain healthy boundaries when sharing personal information
• Offer appropriate physical expressions of affection, as long as they are welcomed by the recipient. These may include:
  o brief hugs
  o pats on the shoulder or back o kisses on the cheek
  o handshakes
  o holding hands during prayer

DON’Ts
Adults shall not under any circumstances:
• Provide vulnerable adults with non-sacramental alcohol, marijuana, illegal drugs, cigarettes, e-cigarettes, vapes, or pornography
• Arrive under the influence of alcohol, illegal drugs, or legal drugs when they are responsible for, or ministering to, a vulnerable adult
• Consume non-sacramental alcohol or illegal drugs or misuse legal drugs when they are responsible for, or ministering to, a vulnerable adult
• Engage in illegal behavior or permit others to engage in illegal behavior
• Engage in any sexual, romantic, illicit, or secretive relationship or conduct with any vulnerable adult

F. Visits to Private Residences
The safety of all persons and healthy boundaries are essential when visiting a vulnerable adult in a private home.

Avoid situations that might compromise safety, such as:
• Visiting behind closed bedroom doors
• Sitting on the bed of the person being visited
• Visiting a person while they are not fully clothed

The best practice is to visit in teams of two or more. If it is not possible for another adult minister to be present, a member of the vulnerable adult’s household should be present. If neither is possible, documentation of the time, duration of visit, general matters discussed, and any pastoral concerns shall be provided to the Supervisor as soon as possible after the visit.

G. Visits to Residential Facilities
The safety of all persons and healthy boundaries are also essential when visiting a vulnerable adult in a Residential Facility. Best practices include:
• Informing facility staff of the visitor’s presence
• Notify staff in advance of and at the conclusion of any visit that takes place out of sight of staff
• Leaving the door to the resident’s private room open during visits
• Maintaining discretion around a resident’s LGBTQ+ identity, as staff in residential facilities may not be aware of or properly trained regarding such identities
• Contacting the Supervisor with any questions

H. Special Considerations for Off-Site or Overnight Programming
Off-site programs, trips, and events are important for the spiritual, social, and emotional well-being of vulnerable adults. They also present additional challenges for maintaining best practices for safe and healthy ministry. The expectations for safe space, as described above, should be observed off-site.

In the event of uncertainty about application of this policy, the Responsible Person should contact their Supervisor.

Because risks that can’t always be anticipated, it is important to obtain permissions and manage documentation as described below:

1. Prior Approvals: Prior approval by the governing body and the member of the clergy in charge is required, and that approval shall be reflected in the minutes of the governing body. ECMN-sponsored programs, trips, or events shall receive prior approval. These same prior approvals are required when the site is a private residence, hosting such events as cookouts, progressive dinners, etc.
2. Insurance: Any off-site programming should be included in the faith community’s or ECMN insurance policy as a documented activity. This usually does not incur additional costs.

For programs involving extensive travel, short-term trip or supplemental insurance—available through most church and organization’s policies as an added rider—must be secured at least one month prior to travel.

It is recommended that all travelers carry evidence of personal health insurance, preferably a copy of the insured person’s insurance card.

1. Registration, Waivers, and Release Forms: All vulnerable adults shall complete and sign a registration form and a waiver and release form before participating in any off-site or overnight programs. Such forms can be made applicable for a full program year. All registration, waiver, and release forms must be confidentially secured on paper or online.

Registration forms for off-site and overnight programs should include basic demographics, any program specific questions, plus the following items:
   a) Gender (male, female, transgender male, transgender female, gender non-binary)
   b) Does this participant have any special needs related to showering or sleeping? (i.e. preference for single accommodations, night terrors, music, etc.)
   c) Does this participant have any social, emotional, sensory, or learning needs that we can make accommodations for in our programming?

A waiver form for off-site and overnight programs should include the following:
   a) All participants shall complete and sign a release and waiver form for each off-site or overnight event. If a person is unable to consent due to impairment or lack of agency, then the signature of that person’s guardian, spouse, or other trusted family member is required.
   b) Permission slips shall be provided for each event and shall be signed by the vulnerable adult, guardian, spouse, or other trusted family member.
   c) Prior permission for an individual to be photographed or recorded on film, videotape, audiotape, or other electronic media is required.

3. Due to the unique risks of off-site visits, events, and programs that cannot always be anticipated, it is important to obtain permissions and manage documentation as described below:
   o All participants shall complete and sign a registration, waiver, and release before participating in any program. Confidentiality must be preserved with respect to medical information.
   o There must be a signature on all release and waiver forms. If a person is unable to consent due to impairment or lack of agency, then the signature of that person’s guardian, spouse, or other trusted family member is required.
   o Completed release and waiver forms shall be maintained in a secure location on-site.
Permission slips shall be provided for each event and shall be signed by the vulnerable adult, guardian, spouse, or other trusted family member.

Prior permission for an individual to be photographed or recorded on film, videotape, audiotape, or other electronic media is required.

4. First Aid and Medications: Current certification in First Aid, CPR, and Automated External Defibrillator (AED) is strongly encouraged for those who work with vulnerable adults.

A first aid kit, appropriately stocked for the event and participants, shall be available in an easily accessible location.

If a vulnerable adult requires assistance with medications of any type, a record must be kept for all medication or first aid given to a participant. This record shall include the participant’s name, the date and time of assistance, the name of the person administering medication or treatment, and a description of the medication, dosage and/or treatment given.

All medications (prescription and over-the-counter) belonging to vulnerable adults requiring assistance with medications shall be given to the Responsible Person, unless otherwise agreed upon.

Only the Responsible Person, or their adult designee, shall administer medications.

5. Sleeping Arrangements, Restrooms, and Showering: Attention should be given to the accommodations for all participants regarding sleeping, restrooms, and showers. Traditional accommodations by gender should be the basis for program design. For sleeping this should include three or more people per gendered sleeping space, and for showering it should include individual shower stalls in restrooms by gender. From here, additional consideration, accommodation, and action are needed to ensure the following for all participants:

- Participant privacy
- Maximization of social integration of all participants
- Minimization of stigmatization of any participants
- Equal opportunity to participants, and
- Safety of all participants.

Examples of reasons for these considerations might include: LGBTQ+, gender nonconforming, medical issues, sleep apnea, other sleep needs (disturbances, music, etc.), showering needs (sensory issues, acne, etc.), developmental issues, etc.

Best practices to achieve the above include, in order:

1. Confirm the individuals who are gender nonconforming, LGBTQ+, differently-abled, and have unique needs written in their registration information.
2. Consult caring adults who know these individuals about how to best serve them.
3. Have a private conversation with these individuals about their needs, especially in regards to sleeping spaces, restrooms, and showers. Options beyond traditional binary gender spaces include: full inclusion based on preferences, or alternate accommodations (single stall bathrooms, private sleeping spaces, individual showers, or separate showering and changing schedules).
4. Inform all participants of sleep accommodations during the first day of the program. When possible, include four standard sleeping room options: female only, female suggested, male only, male suggested. The “only” rooms are by biology; the “suggested” rooms offer full inclusion for gender non-conforming participants. You should also inform participants that single sleeping arrangements are available upon request (still within sight of two adults providing supervision).

5. Here are some helpful considerations for having the conversations involved in Steps 3 & 4:
   a. During one of the initial session in an event, introduce and have all participants sign a community covenant (Appendix G). Make sure to diffuse any possible tension by clearly explaining that this conversation and our policies about sleeping arrangements are meant to create the opportunity for a minimum of 7 hours of safe, restorative sleep for all. It is possible to both support inclusive sleeping spaces and create safe sleeping spaces, free from sexual expression. Our covenants and policies clearly communicate an agreement regarding zero tolerance for any sexual expression in ministry settings. In that context, supporting inclusive sleeping spaces is about making sure everyone is comfortable and can sleep well with open doors and the appropriate spaces and supervision nearby to ensure this for everyone.
   b. After signing this covenant, offer an adult for solo or small group conversation about any of the items, or any special needs participants may have. For instance, “this adult will be right here for this timeframe to answer any questions you have or hear any needs you want to ask for (such as sleeping alone, or with music, etc.).”

6. If an individual’s needs are communicated for the first time onsite during a program, and are not reported or known prior to the ministry setting, full inclusion should be withheld or considered with great care. This care should involve additional conversations with the individual, onsite adult leadership, and ideally the guardians.

Other guidelines for showering:
- Adults should have separate showers or separate times for showers, as should any participant who might request this.
- When there are showers for young people, an adult should sit outside or near the entrance to help monitor and ensure the safety of all involved.

Other guidelines for safe, supervised sleep and rest:
- No bed, cot, or sleeping bag shall have more than one person sleeping in it.
- Supervision by two unrelated adults is required in any space where one or more vulnerable adults are sleeping. This should include supervision near the entrance but not inside the room, such as in the hallway. In a cabin situation, this would include designating an adult sleeping space, making it as private as possible.
- It is acceptable for all participants, regardless of gender identity or sexual orientation, to sleep in the same open area when dressing rooms and bathrooms provide appropriate privacy.
- Participants shall be given the opportunity for at least seven hours of sleep in each 24-hour period, except for programs where permission is given to miss sleep. In these cases, vulnerable adults must agree to participate in writing, and a guardian, spouse, or other trusted family member must give written permission that includes certification that the vulnerable adult does not have a medical condition that would put the participant at risk by missing sleep.

- Participants shall have some time set aside each day for rest or free time.

Best practice guidelines for hotel stays include:

- One person per bed, including cots, pullouts or hide-a-beds, and rollaway beds
- At least 3 people per sleeping room
- Adult supervisors or chaperones staying in rooms on the same floor, among the rooms occupied by vulnerable adults
- Adult leaders assign rooms and room occupants.

Best practice guidelines for camping in tents or cabins include:

- When possible, the number of tents and cabins should allow for the same female only, male only, female suggested, male suggested sleeping accommodations. Single sleeping spaces, within eyesight of adult supervision, is usually not an option in these situations.
- Two non-related adults (one over the age of 25 and one at least two years older than the eldest participant) still need to be supervising any sleeping area for vulnerable adults. In cabins this means having them in the cabins, with some kind of divider wall or sheet. In tents this means having an adult supervisor’s tent right next to a participant tent.
- In a tent, if the number of participants drops to two, you must get to three total people.
- If you are trying to limit the number of tents on a trip, adults may share a tent with vulnerable adults if there are three or more people present. Using some kind of hanging sheet to divide space is still advisable.
- Inclusion of LGBTQ+ and gender nonconforming participants is still as equally important as the comfort of all participants, and simultaneous conversations with all to ensure this, within any sleeping set-up, is encouraged.

6. Transportation

For the health and safety of all participants, the following practices shall be followed:

- For events that originate and/or terminate at the ECMN, faith community, or organization’s facility, all drivers must be at least 21 years of age and provide proof of insurance and a current driver’s license, a completed volunteer driver information form, and have a satisfactory DMV records check.
- A list of those approved to provide transportation to vulnerable adults shall be maintained in the office of the organization.
- Anyone being transported must consent to such transportation beforehand. If a person is unable to consent due to impairment or lack of agency, then prior approval by that person’s guardian, spouse, or other trusted family member is required.
- All drivers and riders must comply with state laws including seat belt and cell phone usage.
I. Camps and Retreat Centers
All camps, camping programs, and retreat centers of ECMN shall follow the guidelines for off-site programming established in this policy. In addition, camps should aim to follow American Camp Association standards to the best of the camp’s ability.

J. International Considerations
• Check in with the U.S. Department of State on travel requirements, including visas.
• Make certain that every traveler’s passport is valid for at least six months beyond your return date.
• Determine whether or not vaccinations are required and/or recommended for entry into specific countries.
• Arrange to have at least two cell phones with the group that will have active coverage in your destination(s). Make a back-up plan for communication with your Responsible Person at home.

V. RESPONDING TO CONCERNS

A. Suspected Abuse, Neglect, or Exploitation of Vulnerable Adults
Anyone who has reason to suspect that abuse, neglect, or exploitation of a vulnerable adult has taken place is strongly encouraged, and all mandated reporters are required, to contact the state’s Adult Protective Services.

In addition, anyone who has reason to suspect that abuse, neglect, or exploitation of a vulnerable adult has taken place within a facility or program of ECMN, a faith community, or other organization should immediately inform one of more or the following:

• The bishop or ECMN Missioners in the case of ECMN
• Member of the clergy in charge or the senior warden in the case of a faith community
• The director, head, or other governing officer in the case of other organizations
• The Intake Officer in case a member of the clergy is suspected of abuse, neglect, and/or exploitation

B. Reporting Known or Suspected Violations of this Policy
Anyone who suspects a violation of these policies shall immediately report the violation to the Responsible Person, member of the clergy in charge, and senior warden. Anyone who suspects a violation of these policies by a member of the clergy shall immediately report the violation to ECMN and/or the Intake Officer. Anyone can make a report to an Intake Officer. Individuals may submit a Notice of Concern (Appendix D), signed or unsigned, to the bishop.

Clergy in charge receiving reports of violations of this policy shall be responsible for providing appropriate pastoral care to all those affected and appropriate remedial and/or disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment or unpaid ministry with the church. If the Responsible Person is a lay person, they are responsible to ensure that appropriate pastoral care is provided for all.
The bishop, hearing reports of violations by clergy, or by laity at ECMN events, shall be responsible for providing appropriate pastoral care to all those affected and appropriate remedial and/or disciplinary action, up to and including canonical disciplinary action as provided by Title IV of the Constitutions and Canons and/or termination of employment or unpaid ministry with ECMN.

ECMN and its faith communities and organizations will promptly initiate an inquiry into all allegations.

C. Local Resources for Response
ECMN, faith communities, and organizations shall provide a list of local resources that can give information and assistance to anyone concerned about circumstances that may violate this policy. Such resources, with contact information, shall include:

- Responsible Person(s) for programs and ministries with vulnerable adults
- Clergy in charge of a congregation
- Wardens
- Bishop
- Intake Officer(s)
- Adult Protective Services

VI. POLICY ADOPTION, IMPLEMENTATION, AND AUDIT

A. Adoption, Implementation, and Audit
The bishop or ecclesiastical authority for ECMN shall inform congregations and other organizations within ECMN of the contents of this policy, and the requirement that each congregation or organization adopt a policy in accordance with this policy.

ECMN is required to conduct a Safe Church self-audit every three years to confirm compliance with ECMN Safe Church Policies.

Procedures to be confirmed by audit will include (but are not limited to):

- Existence of an ECMN policy that is consistent with and/or exceeds the requirements of the model policy from General Convention
- Provision of accessible and appropriate training for all those who work with vulnerable adults in accordance with Screening Protocols (Appendix A) and Education and Training Requirements (Appendix B). Such training shall include, at a minimum, topics identified in this model policy.
- Verification that each faith community and/or organization within ECMN has adopted a policy that is consistent with and/or exceeds the ECMN policy
- Verification that each faith community and/or organization has a process to ensure members access training and conduct public record checks.

B. Faith Community and Organization Adoption, Implementation, and Audit
Faith communities and organizations must adopt Safe Church Policies that are consistent with and/or exceeds the requirements in this policy.
Faith communities and organizations may adopt site-specific variations from ECMN policies where permitted by vestries or governing bodies, which shall be described in detail, including the circumstances under which those variations are to be permitted and their rationale. This approval shall be recorded in the minutes of the vestry or governing body.

These Safe Church Policies shall be posted in an area where activities take place, and shall be given to all adults, guardians, and all paid and unpaid persons who minister to vulnerable adults. These policies shall include the names and phone numbers of the member of the clergy in charge, the senior warden, and the Missioner liaison from ECMN.

Each faith community and organization is required to conduct a Safe Church self-audit annually to confirm compliance with Safe Church policies, and to report such audit to the Missioner liaison from ECMN.

Procedures to be confirmed by audit will include (but are not limited to):

- Screening Protocol compliance: Public records checks, application forms, records of screening and reference verification of paid and unpaid persons (forms in Appendix B)
- Education and Training Requirements (Appendix C).
- Procedures for responding to concerns and incidents
- Evidence of compliance with all of these policies.
Appendix A: Definition of Terms

Age Groups:
• Adult: Anyone who is 18 years or older and not in high school.
• Child: Anyone under the age of 12 years.
• Youth: Anyone who is at least 12 years old, but not yet 18 years old. A youth may also be an individual who is 18 years old or older and still in high school.

Adult Protective Services: A social services program provided by state and local governments serving vulnerable adults and their families. Adult Protective Services receives and investigates reports of suspected abuse, neglect, and exploitation of vulnerable adults.

Bullying: Behavior that intimidates, humiliates, offends, degrades, or harms another person, whether verbal, psychological, social, physical, or otherwise.

Cisgender: An adjective describing a person whose sense of personal identity and gender corresponds with their gender or sex assigned at birth. This is an evolving term as our understanding and language around gender identity [and sexuality] expands and matures. Most individuals self describe as “cisgender.”

Church Employees: For purposes of these Safe Church Policies, the term “Church employees” shall mean all individuals hired by ECMN, faith communities or organizations and subject to federal, state and/or local discrimination and harassment laws. Appendix D: Recommended Practices and Guidelines for Social Media and Electronic Communications for Vulnerable Adults

Social media can be a powerful asset for faith communities to connect quickly and easily with people who want to be updated, connected, or informed about the work of your faith community. Social media can also be a confusing intersection of the personal and the professional. It can be difficult to discern and draw boundaries that ensure transparency, safety, and health for everyone involved.

Developing and implementing policies and practices around social media is central to ensuring that vulnerable populations are protected. In adherence with Safe Church practices, our conversations about power and exploitation need to extend to online platforms like social media. Responsibility rests on all of us to ensure that everyone is trained to interact online in a way that is healthy, transparent, and safe.

General Information about Digital Communications

Everything on social media—posts, words, comments, photos, videos, Shares, Likes, Re-tweets—is public. Please remain professional, even in this informal environment. A private message or email should not be considered private or secure, and should adhere to the strictest guidelines of professionalism.

Posts and some messages can be deleted. However, deleting something does not ensure that it hasn’t been seen. Once something is shared, it exists in the sharers’ network and is no longer under your power. Additionally, many platforms will keep a cached copy of the post that can be searched for and found even after deletion.

Anything that is posted could be used as evidence in litigation, so all are encouraged to use discretion when posting and to ensure that everything posted adheres to the strictest guidelines of professionalism.

Be aware of boundaries, particularly with vulnerable adults but with all parishioners and members of the public. Clergy and church staff need to adapt Safe Church Policies for this virtual environment.

Laws regarding mandated reporting of suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation of vulnerable adults apply in the virtual world as they do in the physical world.

Recommended Practices and Guidelines for Churches and Organizations:

• Churches are not considered public spaces, so media releases need to be obtained for identifiable photos.
  o Similarly, individuals should be notified if their image or a video of them could be used in promotional materials or posted online.

• Any images or videos used of children or youth or vulnerable adults should not identify them by name unless parents or guardians have been notified and have assented.

• Don’t post anything that could be considered privileged, confidential, or private information.
• When posting images or other content, be mindful of copyright and intellectual property laws.
• ECMN, the faith community, or the organization should create and “own” the social media accounts representing ECMN, the faith community, or the organization and should have multiple administrators and/or supervisors with access.
• Each faith community that chooses to use social media should designate one person to act as the administrator. While posting privileges may be shared, one person should be responsible to monitor all content and ensure that items posted are in compliance with guidelines and policies. Specific tasks include:
  o Finding content to be posted
  o Monitor content posted:
    • Ensure that it matches with guiding principles and values of the faith community.
    • Remove inappropriate content as necessary.
  o Respond to those who engage:
    • Try to avoid engaging in a conversation with those who post negative comments—they are not likely to want to engage or be reasoned with in the virtual world.
    • If comments are negative, a simple ‘thank you for your feedback’ can be appropriate.
    • If necessary, request that the individual commenter continue the conversation via email or message to avoid getting into a discussion via comments on a post.
• On many social media platforms, “tagging” someone in photo or video creates a hyperlink to that person’s profile page that can be clicked by anyone. The best practice is for ECMN, faith communities, or organization not to identify or “tag” individuals.
• ECMN, a faith community, or organization do not have a responsibility to review or monitor the personal pages or groups that are not sponsored by the diocese, congregation, or organization respectively.

Recommended Practices and Guidelines for Vulnerable Adults:
Prudent judgement should be used regarding the time of day a vulnerable adult is contacted through social media. Under normal circumstances, refrain from contact—including texting, chatting, or emailing—before 8:00 am or after 10:00 pm except in the event of an emergency.

Privacy settings and personal boundaries should be employed:
• Create and use profiles on social networking sites that are professional, and that consider the use of privacy settings to determine what content can be viewed by different audiences or groups. Review these settings and posted content regularly.
• When possible, send communication (1) to entire groups, (2) on an individual’s “wall,” or (3) in public areas, rather than in private messages. This includes photos, images, and videos.
• Disclose ongoing digital pastoral communications (e.g. e-mails, Facebook messages, texting, etc.) with a vulnerable adult to a Supervisor to determine when a referral to a professional provider or resource is needed.

Create covenants to govern communications within digital groups, which include:
• Appropriate and inappropriate behavior of members (bullying, pictures that depict abuse, violence, illegal activities, sexual acts, etc.) and the consequences for inappropriate behavior.

• Who may join and/or view group activity, when participants should leave the group, and when/if the group will be disbanded.

• Description of content that can be posted or published on the site or page

• A prohibition of “tagging” photos. However, the captioning of photos and videos is permissible with written permission.

• Notification that mandatory reporting laws will be followed.

• Consequences for breaking the covenant.

• Culture setting around the tone to be used in communication. If comments do not abide by this tone, retain the right to remove individuals or comments.

• Retain the right to ban certain individuals from engaging with posts if they have posted content that has been deemed inappropriate.

• Remind individuals that all content, once posted, is considered public. If they do not wish others to see it, they should not post it.

• If content is deemed inappropriate, administrators retain the right to remove it from the site.

Examples of inappropriate content include:
  o Profanity
  o Bigotry or hateful speech
  o Discrimination on the basis of race, culture, ethnicity, age, disability, sexual orientation, or gender identity
  o Targeting of individuals for bullying
  o Lack of cordiality
  o Inappropriate content (videos or images that contain swearing, nudity, violence, bullying, sexual acts, etc.)

Comply with the following best practices regarding “groups” on social networking sites:

• Have at least two unrelated administrators

• Use closed groups, but not “hidden” or “secret” groups

• Remove any content that shows or describes inappropriate behavior outside the bounds of the established behavioral covenant

• Remove adult leaders of groups and individuals who are no longer members due to departure, removal from position, or ineligibility from social networking sites, listservs, etc.

• Observe mandated reporting laws regarding suspected abuse, neglect, and exploitation

• Delete inappropriate material posted in digital groups, address the behavior and report it, if necessary, in accordance with legal and institutional requirements

Appendix F: History of Safe Church Policies

The Committee on Sexual Exploitation (COSE) was created by resolution of the 70th General Convention in 1991 to address issues of sexual misconduct in the Episcopal Church and has continued its work through the 74th General Convention in 2003.

In 2000 the COSE conducted a survey of dioceses on their processes for dealing with issues of sexual misconduct. The results of this survey indicated a need for a larger conversation. In 2001, 125 bishops, chancellors, clergy, and laity from 70 dioceses gathered and unanimously called for a review of existing sexual misconduct policies and for the development of the "next generation" of policies.

The COSE tasked the Church Pension Group (CPG) with developing this “next generation” of policies. In March of 2003, a group of 47 bishops who had attended a training session on preventing childhood sexual abuse in the church, put on by the Office of Pastoral Development and The Church Pension Group, offered a resolution committing Bishops to review current diocesan policies, revise them, and work together to provide appropriate training, education, and materials to support each diocese.

The Bishops also committed to putting forth a resolution to the 74th General Convention in 2003. Resolution B008, Protection of Children and Youth from Abuse, was submitted and passed at that General Convention.

[This History section was drawn, in large part, from the Explanation section of Resolution B008 as submitted to the 74th General Convention in 2003.]

At General Convention in 2018, new model Safe Church Policies were recommended for all dioceses of the Episcopal Church. Those model policies were used to re-draft existing ECMN policies in 2019.
