

1. When clicking on the registration link you will see this on the right hand side of your screen.

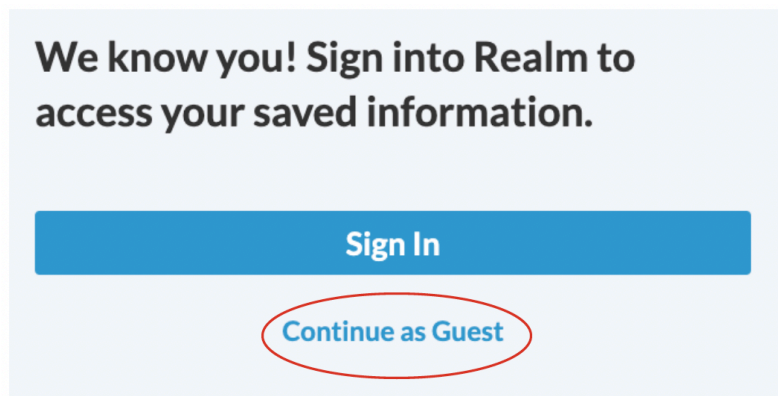

A screenshot of a registration form on a light blue background. At the top, the text "Enter your email to get started." is displayed in bold. Below this is a white rectangular input field for an email address. Underneath the input field is a blue button with the text "Begin Registration" in white. At the bottom of the form is a blue link that says "Already Registered?".

Enter your email to get started.

2. Enter your email address. If you have not previously registered for an ECMN event via Realm you will be brought directly to the Registration page and can follow the registration steps. If you have registered for one of our events via Realm, even if you have not created an account in Realm, or if you do have an account in Realm you will get the following message.

A screenshot of a sign-in form on a light blue background. At the top, the text "We know you! Sign into Realm to access your saved information." is displayed in bold. Below this is a blue button with the text "Sign In" in white. Underneath the button is a blue link that says "Continue as Guest", which is circled in red.

We know you! Sign into Realm to access your saved information.
